

Election Day

- During E-Day the Candidate can relax & be more invisible surround yourself with positive people and remember you are already a winner.
- You should have drivers to pick up people who cannot make it to the polling stations and to push for the last few votes.
- Campaign office will be phoning people to see if they have voted and collecting data from polling stations
- Polling stations will call via cell phone to give data on who has voted to the Campaign office
- Scrutineers need to know the rules and fight for your votes if they could be debated and tossed

Party Time

- Send out thank you's (win or lose)
- Thank the Electorate
- Thank the Volunteers
- Thank the families and friends
- Throw party for your team and yourself you made it
- Give yourself a hug and a pat on the back!

Win or lose the Election
you made it in one piece.
You are AWESOME!!!!

* Remember Just because the Election is over does not mean your work is done. You have three things you must do before you can say its all over; Attend (or get someone from your team) the Official Addition, File your financial return with in 60 Days of the Election, and clean up all your signs within 14 days.
