MI Phase II Training

This two and a half day workshop leaves those with a previous background in this approach feeling like they have stretched every MI muscle in their repertoire. We begin with a brief overview of the spirit and intent of MI, and a recap of the Transtheoretical Model of Change. Then, participants partake in several "workout sessions" to enhance various interviewing skills.

Please Note:

This workshop is only for those that have taken some form of MI training in the past two years. We will be offering a Phase I session for those that are not eligible for Phase II.
